

January 17-19, 2024 | Grand Hyatt San Antonio Riverwalk

The Southern CBO Summit is a learning collaborative comprised of HIV prevention workforce leaders who are working in community-based organizations throughout the southern United States. The audience for this summit is Southern Community-Based Organizations and the goal of the summit is to share best practices, refine leadership approaches, and promote innovative solutions to the implementation of high-impact HIV prevention strategies.

After attending this summit, participants will be able to:

1. Identify key leadership approaches for HIV prevention staff in Southern Community-Based Organizations by leveraging peer-to-peer expertise from across the entire region.
2. Leverage principles of community engagement, policy, partnerships, and stigma reduction to grow community impact and develop programmatic priorities.
3. Build on existing opportunities for growth, navigate gaps in success, and scale-up strategies for more effective delivery of HIV prevention services in the South.

DAY 1 — Wednesday, January 17, 2024

2:00 PM – 6:00 PM

Registration Open

3:00 PM – 5:30 PM

Travis A, Travis B, and Travis C

Leadership Roundtables

Participants join facilitated discussions around topics that directly relate back to their leadership at community-based organizations. While informal, these discussions will create space for participants to explore solutions-based approaches, and to consider how to better leverage resources and partnerships. The takeaway from all of these roundtables will be for participants to more appropriately align their identities with their overall work flows, their leadership development, and their communities' needs for impactful service delivery.
